Main Purpose of Job:

- To assist the Headteacher and teachers in the development and implementation of a programme of work and in the provision of a stable, caring and supportive learning environment, which enables pupils to achieve their full learning potential and facilitates their social and moral development.
- Specifically, the role will support pupils, either individually or in groups, who have some special educational needs, learning difficulty, disability, or who exhibit occasional behavioural problems.

Main Responsibilities and Duties:

Support the teaching and learning processes.

Under the guidance and direction of the teacher:

- Develop, maintain and apply knowledge and understanding of a pupil's general and specific learning needs, to ensure that support is given to them at an appropriate level.
- Learning support is delivered individually and in groups through a range of tasks, mainly: (mindful of all Health and Safety procedures at all times)
 - Motivate and encourage pupils to concentrate on and fulfil the tasks set.
 - Wherever possible, ensure the pupil is supported and directed within their normal classroom environment and expectations, including outdoor play activities, clarifying and explaining instructions.
 - Focus support in areas needing improvement, both academic and social.
 - Work with and support pupils to ensure they are able to use ICT and other specialist equipment to enhance their learning. This will include working with small groups without the class teacher.
 - Undertake learning activities with pupils of varying abilities to ensure differentiation and access to the curriculum.
 - Seek to ensure the promotion and reinforcement of pupil's self-esteem, appropriate levels of effort and behaviour and to guide pupils to become independent learners.
 - Contribute to the assessment of pupils' learning.
 - Contribute to the implementation of specific individual pupil targets.

- Liaise with staff and other LSAs.

Assist teaching staff in the development of learning strategies, with the provision of teaching and learning resources and in the preparation and maintenance of a safe, secure and suitable learning environment.

- Assist in the development, monitoring and evaluation of programmes of work.
- To upkeep data files, catalogue resources, maintain inventories, photocopy, and use I.T. systems for administration and educational purposes.
- Contribute to and assist in the development and monitoring of systems for review and recording of pupil's progress.
- Assist in the preparation, organisation and maintenance of classrooms and their equipment, including assistance with and creation of displays, make basic visual aids, art and craft materials, mount and display pupils work.
- Assist teachers in timetabling of lessons and curriculum as required.
- Assist in the preparation for educational visits, and where necessary accompany students.
- Attend and contribute to school staff meetings and in-service training events, within contracted hours or outside normal hours by agreement.

To provide care and supervision of pupils within the classroom, within the school and outside of the school.

- Supervise pupils using cloakrooms and toilet facilities.
- Supervise pupils in playgrounds and when entering and leaving using school transport.
- Assist in the supervision of Standard Assessment Tasks and tests / assessments as directed.
- Escort pupils to school or parental transport, home or to hospital as necessary.
- Assist pupils eating, in a controlled environment.
- Develop an understanding of and provide for pupils' specific personal needs to ensure a safe learning environment. This may include providing some direct personal care, support and assistance to the pupil in respect of toileting, eating, mobility and dispensing medication.
- To assume sole supervision of whole classes for short periods in the absence of the teacher. This would not be expected in the case of inexperienced LSAs.

Additionally, under the overall direction of teaching staff the job may include some or all of the following duties, depending on the needs of pupils:

- Where a current First Aid qualification is held, in the absence of other medical facilities:
 - Maintain First Aid equipment and materials.
