

Specialist SEN Consultant

To work across the trust schools

Pay scale : Leadership pay spine (negotiable)

Start date, to be negotiated

PPAT Education are seeking to appoint an experienced and qualified SEN specialist consultant to work across the trust schools and with our existing highly skilled staff teams to determine the strategic development of SEN policy and provision for pupils with complex needs.

This is a new role and would suit a highly motivated person who will lead, train and guide trust colleagues, working closely with staff, parents and other agencies.

The successful candidate should have knowledge of the role of the SEN Co-Ordinator and have:

- Excellent knowledge of Statutory processes
- Experience with SEND provision and inclusive strategies.
 - Knowledge of mediation and tribunal processes.
 - The ability to train and support our current staff.
- Effective communication with parents and multi-disciplinary teams.
- Patience, empathy, and creativity in addressing the diverse needs of our pupils and advise on making provision even better.

Visits to discuss the role or any queries regarding the role are warmly welcomed, please telephone to make an appointment.

How to Apply:
