

Suspensions and Exclusions Policy

Reviewed September 2024
Next review due September 2025

Preston Primary Academy Trust Suspension and Exclusion Policy

This policy has been written with the underlying principles of a Church of England school, which applies to Preston C of E Primary School, Ash C of E Primary School and North Cadbury C of E Primary School.

Statement of Intent

Preston Primary Academy Trust believes that all members of our school communities should be able to learn and achieve their full potential in a safe, secure, and orderly environment.

Our schools' behaviour policies are based on our belief in, and respect for, the value and contribution of all members of our community and their right to succeed. They are applied with consistency and fairness, with regard to each individual situation. Pupils who experience particular difficulties with behaviour receive behavioural support according to their need. The emphasis is on encouraging positive behaviour through high expectations; a focus on learning; and praise and rewards.

However, the Trust recognises that on occasions sanctions are necessary to demonstrate that misbehaviour is not acceptable; to express the disapproval of the school community and to deter other pupils from similar behaviour. These sanctions could include the suspension, and exclusion of pupils where there has been a serious breach, or consistent breaches, of the school's Behaviour Policy. Suspending or excluding a pupil may also happen in instances where allowing the pupil to remain in school would be damaging to the education and welfare of themselves or others.

In all cases, the Trust believes suspending or excluding pupils should only be used as a means of last resort and because of our focus on positive behaviours and the opportunities for pupils to learn from their mistakes, we expect lower than the national average rates of suspension and exclusion.

Definitions

A "suspension" is defined as the temporary removal of a pupil from the school for behaviour management purposes. A pupil may be suspended for one or more fixed periods, up to a maximum of 45 school days in a single academic year. A suspension does not have to be for a continuous period. If a pupil has been suspended for 45 school days in a school year, the school cannot issue any further suspensions. It can only issue an exclusion.

An “exclusion” is defined as the permanent removal of a pupil from the school, in response to a serious breach or persistent breaches of the school’s Behaviour Policy, and where allowing the pupil to remain in school would seriously harm the education or welfare of the pupils or staff in the school.

1. Legal Framework

This policy has due regard to all relevant legislation including, but not limited to, the following:

- Education Act 1996
- Education Act 2002
- Education and Inspections Act 2006
- The Education (Provision of Full-Time Education for Excluded Pupils) (England) Regulations 2007
- Equality Act 2010
- The School Discipline (Pupil Exclusions and Reviews) (England) (Amendment and Transitional Provision) Regulations 2023
- The European Convention on Human Rights (ECHR)

This policy also has due regard to statutory and non-statutory guidance, including, but not limited to, the following:

- DfE (2023) ‘Suspension and Permanent Exclusion from maintained schools, academies and pupil referral units in England, including pupil movement’.
- DfE (2024) ‘Behaviour in Schools’
- DfE (2015) ‘Special educational needs and disability code of practice: 0 to 25 years’
- DfE (2018) ‘Mental health and behaviour in schools’

It operates in conjunction with the following Trust and school policies:

- Behaviour Policy
- Special Educational Needs and Disabilities (SEND) Policy
- Child Protection and Safeguarding Policy

2. Roles and Responsibilities

The Local Authority (LA) is responsible for:

- Having due regard to the relevant statutory guidance when carrying out its duties in relation to the education of Looked After Children.
- Arranging suitable full-time education for any pupil of compulsory school age excluded permanently, in coordination with the school.
- Reviewing and reassessing pupils' needs in consultation with their parents where they have an education, health and care plan (EHCP) and are excluded permanently, with a view to identifying a new placement.

The trust is responsible for:

- Arranging for an independent review panel hearing to review the decision of the local governing body not to reinstate a permanently excluded pupil where required.
- Arranging for the independent review panel hearing to be held via remote access where requested by parents.

The Board of Directors is responsible for:

- Providing information to the Secretary of State and LA about any suspensions and exclusions within the last 12 months.
- Arranging suitable full-time education for any pupil of compulsory school age who is suspended, where required.
- Considering parents' representations about suspensions and exclusions within 15 school days of receiving notice if the appropriate requirements are met.
- Where a suspension or exclusion would result in a pupil missing a public examination or external test, considering the suspension or exclusion before this date.
- Considering whether it would be appropriate for a pupil to be permitted onto the school premises to sit the public examination or test.
- Arranging the representation meeting at a time and date convenient to all parties, but in compliance with the statutory time limits.
- Arranging for the representation meeting to take place via remote access where requested by parents.
- Adhering to its responsibilities to consider the reinstatement of pupils.
- Considering the interests and circumstances of the suspended or excluded pupil, including the circumstances in which they were suspended or excluded, and have due regard to the interests of others at the school.

- Using the civil standard of proof (based on the 'balance of probabilities', it is more than likely that the fact is true) when establishing the facts relating to a suspension or exclusion.
- Ensuring clear minutes are taken of the representation meeting.
- Noting the outcome of the representation meeting on the pupil's education record, along with copies of relevant papers for future reference.
- Notifying the pupil's parents, the headteacher and the LA of its decision and the reasons for it, without delay.
- Appointing a clerk to provide advice to the relevant panel and parties to the review on procedure, law and statutory guidance on suspensions and exclusions.
- Where appropriate, informing parents of where to apply for an independent review panel.
- Informing parents of relevant sources of information.
- Ensuring a pupil's name is removed from the school admissions register, where appropriate.
- Reconvening within 10 school days to reconsider reinstatement of a pupil where directed to do so by the suspensions and exclusions review panel.
- Using data to evaluate the Trust's practices regarding intervention, suspension and exclusion.

The Board of Directors has delegated responsibility for the management of representation meetings to the local governing body.

The clerk to the suspensions and exclusions review panel is responsible for:

- Informing the appropriate individuals that they are entitled to:
 - Make written representations to the panel.
 - Attend the hearing and make oral representations to the panel.
 - Be represented.
- Circulating copies of relevant papers at least five school days before the review to all parties.
- Giving all parties details of those attending and their role, once the position is clear.
- Attending the review and ensuring that minutes are produced in accordance with instructions from the panel within the timeframe of the policy.

The headteacher is responsible for:

- Implementing good levels of discipline to ensure all pupils can benefit from the opportunities provided by education and to minimise potential suspensions and exclusions.
- Applying the civil standard of proof when establishing the facts in relation to a suspension or exclusion.
- Complying with their statutory duties in relation to pupils with SEND when administering the suspension or exclusion process, as outlined in the Special Educational Needs and Disabilities (SEND) Policy.
- Considering any contributing factors that are identified after an incident of poor behaviour has occurred, e.g. if a pupil has suffered bereavement, experienced bullying or has a mental health issue.
- Considering the use of a multi-agency assessment for a pupil who demonstrates persistent disruptive behaviour.
- Reviewing the effectiveness of suspensions and exclusions as sanctions, e.g. if a pupil has received multiple suspensions or is approaching the legal limit for suspensions in an academic year.
- Considering what extra support may be needed to identify and address the needs of individual pupils, particularly those with SEND, those eligible for FSM, LAC and those from certain ethnic groups.
- Engaging effectively with parents in supporting the behaviour of pupils with additional needs.
- Determining whether a pupil will be suspended or excluded on disciplinary grounds.
- Adhering to their responsibilities when cancelling an exclusion before the governing board has met to consider whether the pupil should be reinstated. Withdrawing any suspensions or exclusions that have not been reviewed by the governing board, where appropriate.
- Ensuring any decision to suspend or exclude is lawful, rational, reasonable, fair and proportionate.
- Complying with the requirements of the Equality Act 2010 when deciding whether to suspend or exclude a pupil.
- Ensuring they have considered their legal duty of care when sending a pupil home following a suspension or exclusion.
- Making the decision to suspend or exclude based on the evidence available at the time, regardless of any police investigation and/or criminal proceedings.

- Notifying a pupil's parents without delay where the decision is taken to suspend or exclude the pupil, including the days on which the parents must ensure the pupil is not present in a public place at any time during school hours, as well as any other necessary information statutorily required.
- Ensuring that all information provided to parents is clear and easily understood.
- Notifying the governor responsible and LA of their decision to exclude a pupil where appropriate, as well as the pupil's home authority if required.
- Notifying the governing board once per term of any exclusions in the headteacher's report to governors.
- Organising suitable work for excluded pupils where alternative provision cannot be arranged.

3. Grounds for suspension or exclusion

The Headteacher will only suspend or exclude a pupil where it is absolutely necessary, and where all other possible disciplinary sanctions, as detailed in the school's Behaviour Policy, have failed to be successful.

The following examples of behaviour may warrant the decision to suspend or exclude a pupil:

- Physical assault against a pupil
- Physical assault against an adult
- Verbal abuse or threatening behaviour against a pupil
- Verbal abuse or threatening behaviour against an adult
- Use, or threat of use, of an offensive weapon or prohibited item
- Bullying
- Discriminatory abuse.

Pupils can be suspended on a fixed-period basis, i.e. for up to 45 school days within a year, or permanently excluded. Similarly, pupils can be permanently excluded following a suspension, where further evidence is presented. In all cases, the headteacher will decide whether a pupil will be subject to a suspension or an exclusion, depending on what the circumstances warrant.

4. The Headteacher's power to suspend and exclude

Only the Headteacher (or in their absence the acting Headteacher) can suspend or exclude a pupil from the school and is able to decide whether a suspension or an exclusion is appropriate. All suspensions and exclusions will only be issued on disciplinary grounds.

The headteacher is able to suspend pupils where their behaviour is disruptive during lunchtime. All lunchtime suspensions will be counted as half of a school day. The headteacher is also able to consider a pupil's disruptive behaviour outside of the school premises as grounds for suspension or exclusion, in accordance with the school's Behaviour Policy.

When sending a pupil home following any suspension or exclusion, the headteacher will ensure that they exercise their duty of care at all times and will always inform the parents.

Any decision made to suspend or exclude a pupil will be lawful, proportionate and fair, with respect to legislation relating directly to suspensions and exclusions and the school's wider legal duties, including the ECHR. At all times, the headteacher will take into account their legal duties under the Equality Act 2010 and the 'Special educational needs and disability code of practice: 0 to 25 years', ensuring that they do not discriminate on any grounds and will not increase the severity of a pupil's suspension or exclusion on these grounds.

The headteacher will apply the civil standard of proof when responding to the facts relating to a suspension or exclusion, i.e. that 'on the balance of probabilities' it is more likely than not that the facts are true.

The headteacher may cancel any suspension or exclusion that has already begun, or one that has not yet begun; however, this power will only be used if the suspension or exclusion has not already been reviewed by the local governing body.

Where a suspension or exclusion is cancelled, the headteacher will notify the pupil's parents, the governing board, the LA, and, where relevant, the virtual school head (VSH) and the pupil's social worker. The notification will also provide the reason for the cancellation. The headteacher will offer the pupil's parents the opportunity to meet with the headteacher to discuss the circumstances that led to the cancellation of the exclusion, and the pupil will be allowed back into school without delay.

When a suspension or exclusion is cancelled, the local governing body's duty to consider reinstatement ceases, and there is no requirement to hold a meeting to consider reinstatement.

Any days spent out of school as a result of a suspension or exclusion prior to it being cancelled will count towards the maximum 45 school days that a pupil can be suspended or excluded in an academic year. A permanent exclusion will not be cancelled if the pupil has already been suspended or excluded for more than 45 school days in an academic year or if they will have been so by the time the cancellation takes effect.

The headteacher will report the number of suspensions and exclusions that have been cancelled, alongside the circumstances around and reasons for cancellation, to the governing board once per term, to allow the governing board to have appropriate oversight. The headteacher will also report the number of suspensions and exclusions that have been cancelled, alongside the circumstances around and reasons for cancellation, to the local governing body once per term.

The headteacher will not issue any 'informal' or 'unofficial' suspensions or exclusions, e.g. sending a pupil home to 'cool off', regardless of whether the parents have agreed to this. The headteacher will not use the threat of suspension or exclusion as a means of instructing parents to remove their child from the premises.

All suspensions and exclusions will be formally recorded on the school's information management system.

5. The suspension and exclusion process

In cases where suspension or exclusion is considered the following process will be followed:

- The child is removed from any area where they could harm themselves or others.
- No decision will be made until the Headteacher interviews the child to hear their versions of events and consider their views. The headteacher will inform the child of how their views are taken into account when making their decision.
- The Headteacher will take into account any contributing factors that are identified after a case of poor behaviour has occurred, e.g. if the pupil's wellbeing has been compromised, or they have been subjected to bullying.
- The Headteacher will also take into consideration whether the pupil has received multiple suspensions or is approaching the legal limit of 45 suspended days per school year, and whether suspension is serving as an effective sanction.
- The Headteacher will also take into consideration the early interventions in place to address underlying causes of disruptive behaviour, including liaising with external agencies, to assess pupils who demonstrate consistently poor behaviour.
- If the decision is to suspend or exclude, the Headteacher will contact the child's Parents or Guardians without delay, to give a brief explanation of the difficulties and notify that they must collect their child from school either immediately or at a fixed time. The length of the intended suspension or exclusion is clearly stated verbally to the Parents or Guardians.

- On behalf of the Headteacher, the School Office will prepare and send, without delay, the formal suspension or exclusion letter to parents.
- The Headteacher will, without delay, inform the Local Governing body (LGB) of - any exclusion, including when a suspension is followed by a decision to permanently exclude a pupil.
 - Any suspension or exclusion which would result in the pupil being suspended or excluded for a total of more than 5 school days (or more than 10 lunchtimes) in a term.
 - Any suspension or exclusion which would result in the pupil missing a National Curriculum test or public exam.
- If the child has a social worker or is a child looked after, the Headteacher will, without delay, inform the pupil's social worker or the Virtual School Head (VSH) as appropriate.
- The Headteacher will, without delay, inform the local authority of any suspension or exclusion regardless of the length of the suspension or exclusion.
- The school has a duty to provide education during the first 5 days of a suspension. Work will be prepared and sent home by the child's Class Teacher. Where a child is given a suspension of a duration of six days or longer, the school has a duty to arrange suitable full-time educational provision from and including the sixth school day of exclusion. This will happen in consultation with the Support Services

A suspension can be for parts of the school day. For example, if a pupil's behaviour at lunchtime is disruptive, they may be suspended from the school premises for the duration of the lunchtime period. The legal requirements relating to the suspension, such as the Headteacher's duty to notify parents, apply in all cases. Lunchtime suspensions are counted as half a school day in determining whether a local governing body meeting is triggered.

Cancelling suspensions and exclusions

The Headteacher may cancel a suspension or an exclusion that has already begun but this may only be done where it has not yet been reviewed by the local governing body.

All parties informed of the suspension must be notified, without delay, of this decision and the pupil allowed back into school without delay. Any time spent out of schools as the result of a cancelled suspension or exclusion will count towards the maximum of 45 school days permitted in a school year.

6. Reintegration- returning from suspension.

- On the child's return to school, the Headteacher (or in their absence the acting Headteacher) will meet with the child and the Parents/Guardians to discuss the design of the reintegration strategy to offer the child a fresh start and to establish the need for appropriate behaviour in reference to the school's Behaviour Policy.
- A child will not be prevented from returning to a mainstream classroom if parents are unable or unwilling to attend a reintegration meeting.
- Where necessary, the school will work with relevant staff and multi-agency organisations, such as teachers, pastoral staff, mentors, social workers, educational psychologists, or the safer schools team, to identify if the Child has any SEND and/or health needs.
- The reintegration strategy may include a Pastoral Support Plan (PSP). A PSP plan is for children who are at risk of further suspensions or permanent exclusion.

7. Responsibilities of the Local Governing Body (LGB)

The LGB will monitor the number of suspensions and exclusions and the number of cancellations of suspensions and exclusions once per term.

The Trust Board has delegated authority to the LGB, or a panel of 3 members of the LGB, to consider and decide on the reinstatement of a suspended or an excluded child within 15 school days of receiving notice of a suspension or exclusion from the headteacher if:

- it is a permanent exclusion.
- it is a suspension which would bring the pupil's total number of school days out of school to more than 15 in a term; or
- it would result in the pupil missing a public examination or national curriculum test.

The LGB is also delegated to hear parental representations in cases when a child has been suspended for more than 5 but less than 16 school days in a term (including suspensions that exceed 15 school days by less than a whole day). The representations must be considered within 50 school days of receiving the notice of suspension. In the absence of any representations from parents, the governing board will consider the reinstatement on their own.

Where a suspension will take a pupil's total number of school days out of school above five but less than 15 for the term, and parents have not requested a governing board meeting, the governing board will not be required to consider the pupil's reinstatement but it will have the power to do so if it deems it appropriate.

The LGB is also delegated to hear parental representations in cases where the child has been suspended, and the suspension does not bring the pupil's total number of days of suspension to more than 5 in a term. However, it is not required to arrange a meeting with parents, and it cannot direct the headteacher to reinstate the pupil.

Where suspension or exclusion would result in a pupil missing a public examination or national assessment, the local governing body will consider the suspension or exclusion before the test to decide whether the pupil should be reinstated in time to take the examination/test. If it is not practicable for a sufficient number of governors to consider the decision before the examination, a smaller sub-committee will consider the suspension or exclusion and decide whether or not to reinstate the pupil.

In light of the above, the local governing body will also consider whether it would be appropriate to allow the suspended or excluded pupil to enter the premises to take the examination.

8. Arrangements for Governor Meetings (Panels) to consider Suspensions and Exclusions

Suspensions of 15+ days

The Clerk to the Local Governing Body should secure from the Headteacher the following:

- PSP or IEP
- Log of incidents
- Copy of any professional reports
- Any other relevant information
- School assessment test results

- Most recent School report
- If the pupil is in KS1, Foundation Profile, School Entry Plan, Boxall Profile

The Clerk should also invite the parents to submit written information for the governors to consider.

The Clerk must then check the availability of the Headteacher, relevant governors, Parents/Guardians, and the child's social worker, if they have one and the VSH, if the child is looked after for the review meeting. This must take place between the 6th and 15th school day following notification from the Headteacher. The meeting should be at a time and place convenient to all parties. Parents may be accompanied by a person of their choice to the meeting. Parents may request the meeting to be held remotely. Social workers and VSHs may join the meeting remotely regardless of the format chosen by the parents.

Any written evidence and information should be circulated to all parties, at least five school days in advance of the meeting.

If the suspension or exclusion would result in the pupil missing a national curriculum test, the meeting should take place before the date of the test.

Witness Statements

The Headteacher should, where appropriate, keep written records of the actions taken, including any interview with the pupil concerned.

Permanent Exclusion

The LGB will comply with the statutory time limits set out in the statutory guidance. The Lead Governance Professional (LGP) will clerk permanent exclusion meetings.

When a permanent exclusion is notified to the LGB, the LGP must secure the following information from the Headteacher:

- Any information in support of the decision to exclude.
- A summary of the strategies and interventions used to try to prevent permanent exclusion.
- Copies of PSP and IEPs for the pupil over the past 12 months

- A log of incidents
- Attendance record
- Copies of reports from the Support Services
- Behaviour Policy
- School assessment results
- Copy of the most recent School report
- If the pupil is in KS1, information from Foundation Profile, School Entry Plan, Boxall Profile
- Relevant information about the pupil's home circumstances.
- Relevant information regarding SEN, disability, or medical conditions
- Witness statements

The LGP should also invite the parents to submit written information for the governors to consider.

The LGP must then check the availability of the Headteacher, relevant governors, Parents/Guardians, and the child's social worker, if they have one and the VSH, if the child is looked after, for the review meeting. This must take place between the 6th and 15th school day following notification from the Headteacher. The meeting should be at a time and place convenient to all parties. Parents may be accompanied by a person of their choice to the meeting.

Any written evidence and information should be circulated to all parties, at least five school days in advance of the meeting.

9. Reaching a Decision

The local governing body will consider the presented evidence, and the statements of people present at the panel and will ask all parties, except the clerk to withdraw before making a decision. The local governing body will either:

- Decline to reinstate the pupil.
- Direct the reinstatement of the pupil immediately, or on a specified date.

If reinstatement would make no practical difference, e.g. if the pupil has already returned to school following a suspension or the parents make clear they do not want their child reinstated, the governing board will still consider whether the pupil should be officially reinstated, and whether the headteacher's decision to suspend or exclude the pupil was fair, lawful and proportionate, based on the evidence presented.

A note of the LGB's views on the suspension or exclusion will be placed on the Pupil's School Record with copies of the relevant papers. The Clerk will take detailed minutes, bearing in mind the parental right to appeal. A copy will be required if this goes to Independent Appeal.

10. Notification of considered suspensions and exclusions

The LGB will inform the Parent and Headteacher of its decision in writing no more than one school day from the hearing, stating the reasons.

The LGB will not attach conditions to any direction it may give to the Headteacher to reinstate the pupil.

In the case of exclusion where the LGB decides not to reinstate the pupil, its letter to the Parent/Guardian will include the following information:

- That the exclusion is permanent
- The reason for the decision
- Their right to appeal to an Independent Appeal Panel, together with the name and address of the person to whom any notice to appeal should be sent.
- The date by which the appeal should be lodged.
- That any notice of appeal must set out grounds on which the appeal is made and that, where appropriate, this should include reference to how a pupil's SEND is considered relevant to the exclusion.
- That, regardless of whether a pupil has been identified as having SEND, the parents have a right to require the Board of Directors to ensure a SEND expert attends the review.
- Of the role of the SEND expert that will attend the review, and that the parents will not be charged for this.
- That they are required to make it clear if they wish for a SEND expert to attend the review.

- That they may appoint someone at their own expense to make representations to the panel.

The Local Governing Body will also notify parents that, if they believe a suspension or exclusion has been issued as a result of discrimination, then they are required to make a claim under the Equality Act 2010 to the First-tier Tribunal (SEND), and that this should be within six months of when the discrimination allegedly took place.

11. Removing excluded pupils from the school register

The headteacher will remove pupils from the school register if:

- 15 school days have passed since the parents were notified of the governing board's decision not to reinstate the pupil and no application for an independent panel review has been received.
- The parents have stated in writing that they will not be applying for an independent panel review following an exclusion.

If an application for an independent panel review has been made within 15 school days, the headteacher will wait until the review has been determined, or abandoned, and until the local governing body has completed any reconsideration that the panel recommended or directed it to carry out, before removing the pupil from the school register.

If a pupil's name is to be removed from the register, the headteacher will make a return to the LA, which will include:

- All the particulars which were entered in the register.
- The address of any parent with whom the pupil normally resides.
- The grounds upon which the pupil's name is to be removed from the register.

Any return to the LA will be made as soon as the grounds for removal are met and no later than the date in which the pupil's name was removed.

If a pupil's name has been removed from the register and a discrimination claim is made, the pupil may be reinstated following a decision made by the First-tier Tribunal (SEND) or County Court.

Whilst a pupil's name remains on the admissions register, the appropriate code will be used to mark the pupil's attendance:

- Code B: Education off-site
- Code D: Dual registration

- Code E: Absent and not attending alternative provision

12. Independent review panel (IRP)

The Trust will review the local governing body's decision not to reinstate an excluded pupil if the parents submit their application for this within the required time frame.

The Trust will commission an independent review panel from an external body. The IRP will have three or five members that represent the following categories:

- A lay member to chair the panel. This individual will not have worked in any school in a paid capacity
- A current or former school governor who has served for at least 12 consecutive months in the last 5 years
- A headteacher or individual who has been a headteacher within the last 5 years

Parents are required to submit their applications within:

- 15 school days of the governing board's notification of their decision.
- 15 school days of the final determination of a discriminatory claim made under the Equality Act 2010.

Any application made outside of the above timeframe will not be reviewed. Parents are able to request an independent panel review even if they did not make a case to, or attend, the local governing body's initial consideration of the exclusion.

Parents can request that independent review panels take place via remote access.

The Trust will adhere to all statutory guidelines when commissioning an independent panel review, as outlined in the DfE's statutory guidance.

13. Appointing a SEND expert

If requested by parents in their application for an independent review panel, the Trust will appoint a SEND expert to attend the panel and covers the associated costs of this appointment. Parents have a right to request the attendance of a SEND expert at a review, regardless of whether the school recognises that their child has SEND.

The Trust will make arrangements to indemnify the SEND expert against any legal costs and expenses reasonably incurred as a result of any decisions or actions connected to the review and which are taken in good faith.

An individual will not serve as a SEND expert if they have, or at any time have had, any connection with the Trust, school, parents or pupil, or the incident leading to the exclusion, which might reasonably be taken to raise doubts about their ability to act impartially; however, an individual is not taken to have such a connection solely because they are an employee of the Trust.

The SEND expert will be a professional with first-hand experience of the assessment and support of SEND, as well as an understanding of the legal requirements on schools in relation to SEND. Examples of suitable individuals include educational psychologists, specialist SEND teachers, SENCOs and behaviour support teachers.

Recently retired individuals are not precluded from fulfilling this role; however, during interview, the Trust will assess the knowledge of such individuals in order to ensure that they have a good understanding of current practice and the legal requirements on schools in relation to SEND.

Whilst individuals are not automatically taken to be partial simply because they are an employee of, or contracted by, the Trust, they will not have had any previous involvement in the assessment or support of SEND for the excluded pupil, or siblings of the excluded pupil. The Trust will request that prospective SEND experts declare any conflict of interest at the earliest opportunity.

The final decision on the appointment of a SEND expert is for the Trust to make, but it will take reasonable steps to ensure that parents have confidence in the impartiality and capability of the SEND expert. Where possible, this will include offering parents a choice of SEND expert. In order to meet its duties within the statutory time frame, the Trust may consider maintaining a list of individuals capable of performing the role of SEND expert in advance of a request.

The Trust will determine the amount of any payment in relation to the appointment of the SEND expert, such as financial loss, travel and subsistence allowances.

14. The role of the SEND expert

The SEND expert's role is analogous to an expert witness, providing (orally and/or written) impartial advice to the panel on how SEND might be relevant to the exclusion. The SEND expert will base their advice on the evidence provided to the panel. The SEND expert's role does not include making an assessment of the pupil's SEND.

The focus of the SEND expert's advice will be on whether the Trust's and school's policies which relate to SEND, or the application of these policies in relation to the excluded pupil, were legal, reasonable and procedurally fair. If the SEND expert believes that this was not the case, they will, where possible, advise the panel on the possible contribution this could have made to the circumstances of the pupil's exclusion.

Where the school does not recognise that a pupil has SEND, the SEND expert will advise the panel on whether they believe the school acted in a legal, reasonable and procedurally fair way with respect to the identification of any SEND that the pupil may potentially have, and any contribution that this could have made to the circumstances of the pupil's exclusion.

The SEND expert will not criticise a school's policies or actions simply because they believe a different approach should have been followed or because another school might have taken a different approach.

15. Appointing a clerk

The commissioned service will decide whether to appoint a clerk to the independent review panel, or to make alternative arrangements to administer the panel.

Where a clerk is appointed, the commissioned service will ensure that the clerk did not serve as clerk to the local governing body when the decision was made not to reinstate the pupil.

The role of the clerk

The clerk's role is to provide advice to the panel and parties to the review on procedure, law and statutory guidance on exclusions.

The clerk will:

- Identify, in advance of the meeting, whether the excluded pupil wishes to attend the panel hearing, taking reasonable steps to enable the pupil to feedback their views, irrespective of their attendance.
- Identify, in advance of the meeting, whether any alleged victims of the incident leading up to the exclusion wish to attend the panel hearing, taking reasonable steps to enable them to feedback their views, irrespective of their attendance.
- Ensure that the panel is able to hear from any witnesses to the incident leading to the exclusion, taking into account the fact that some of these people may be pupils at the school. Pupils under 18 will not be allowed to appear in person without parental consent.
- Inform the parents, headteacher and governing board that they are entitled to make oral and written representations to the panel, attend the hearing, and be represented.
- Ensure that all parties are:
 - Provided with copies of relevant papers at least five school days before the review, notifying the panel if any requested documents have not been provided in case the panel wishes to adjourn until a later date.
 - Informed about who is attending the meeting, and what their roles are.

- Attend the review and ensure that minutes are produced in accordance with instructions from the independent review panel.

Where a clerk is not appointed, the commissioned service will undertake the functions outlined above.

14. The duties of the independent review panel

The role of the panel is to review the governing board's decision not to reinstate an excluded pupil. In reviewing the decision, the panel will consider the interests and circumstances of the excluded pupil, including the circumstances in which the pupil was excluded, and have regard to the interests of other pupils and people working at the school. The panel will apply the civil standard of proof, rather than the criminal standard of 'beyond reasonable doubt'.

Following the review, the panel will do one of the following:

- Uphold the decision
- Recommend that the governing board reconsiders reinstatement
- Quash the decision and direct that the governing board reconsiders reinstatement

The panel's decision does not have to be unanimous and can be decided by a majority vote. It is binding on the pupil, parents, local governing body, headteacher and the Trust.

16. Conducting governing board meetings or independent review panels via remote access

Parents will be able to request that governing board meetings or independent review panels are held via remote access; however, parents will be made aware that this is not the default option.

Where a parent makes a request correctly in line with instructions set out in the headteacher's or local governing body's written notification, the local governing body or trust will hold the meeting via the use of remote access.

Remote meetings and panels will be held in accordance with timelines for face-to-face meetings.

Where a request for a meeting to be held via remote access is not made, or the parent does not state a preference, the meeting or panel will be held in person unless it is not practicable to do so.

If there is a reason related to extraordinary events or unforeseen circumstances, e.g. an outbreak of an infectious illness, which means it is not reasonable for a meeting or panel to be held in person, it may be held via remote access.

Meetings will only be held via remote access if the governing board or Trust is satisfied that that the meeting can be held fairly and transparently. If this cannot be done, the governing board or Trust will consult with the parent to discuss how a face-to-face meeting can be arranged that will be convenient for them.

If there are technological or internet issues during a remote meeting which compromises the ability for participants to be seen or heard or prevents the meeting from being held fairly and transparently and it is not reasonably practicable to resolve, a face-to-face meeting will be arranged without delay.

When holding meetings or panels via remote access, the local governing body and trust will:

- Comply with relevant equalities legislation.
- Enable access to support which the parent is entitled to, including the presence of a friend.
- Confirm with all participants that they have access to the technology that will allow them to participate in the meeting or panel.
- Ensure all the participants will be able to put across their point of view and/or fulfil their function.
- Ensure the remote meeting or panel can be held fairly and transparently.

17. Reconsidering reinstatement following a review

Where the independent review panel instructs the governing board to reconsider their decision not to reinstate a pupil, they will do so within 10 school days of being given notice of the review panel's decision.

The Trust is aware that if, following an instruction to reconsider, the local governing body does not offer to reinstate the pupil, then the school will be required to make a payment of £4,000 directly to the LA area in which the school is located.

Where the independent review panel recommends that the local governing body should reconsider their decision not to reinstate a pupil, they will do so within 10 school days of being given notice of the review panel's decision. The school is aware that if, following a recommendation to reconsider, the governing board does not offer to reinstate the pupil, it will not be subject to a financial adjustment. If, following reconsideration, the governing board offers to reinstate the pupil but the parents decline, no adjustment will be made to the school's budget.

Following reconsideration, the local governing board will notify the parents, headteacher and LA of their reconsidered decision and the reasons for this.

18. Criminal investigations

The headteacher will not postpone taking a decision to suspend or exclude a pupil due to a police investigation being underway, or any criminal proceedings that are in place.

Particular consideration will be given by the headteacher when deciding to suspend or exclude a pupil where evidence is limited by a police investigation, to ensure that any decision made is fair and reasonable.

If the governing board is required to consider the headteacher's decision in these circumstances, they will not postpone the meeting and will make a decision based on the evidence available.

19. Training requirements

The Trust will ensure that the commissioned service will ensure all independent review panel members and clerks have received training within the two years prior to the date of the review. Training will cover:

- The requirements of the legislation, regulations and statutory guidance governing suspensions and exclusions.
- The need for the panel to observe procedural fairness and the rules of natural justice.
- The role of the chair of a review panel.
- The role of the clerk to a review panel.
- The duties of headteachers, governing boards and the panel under the Equality Act 2010.
- The effect of section 6 of the Human Rights Act 1998 and the need to act in a manner compatible with human rights protected by that Act.

Clerks will also have an up-to-date understanding on developments in case law which are relevant to suspension and exclusion.

20. Using data

The headteacher will ensure that all data regarding suspensions and exclusions is collected and provided to the local governing body and the Board of Directors on a termly basis. Both will review this data regularly in order to:

- Consider the level of pupil moves and the characteristics of pupils who are moving on any permanent exclusions to ensure that this is only being used as a last resort.
- Gather information on pupils who are taken off the roll and those who are on the roll but attending education off-site.
- Consider the effectiveness and consistency in implementing the Behaviour Policy.
- Understand any variations in the rolling average of permanent exclusions to ensure they are only used when necessary.
- Understand the characteristics of suspended and excluded pupils and evaluate equality considerations.
- Gather information on where pupils are receiving repeat suspensions.
- Evaluate interventions in place to support pupils at risk of suspension and exclusion, including where there are patterns which may indicate that certain policies and support measures are or are not working.
- Analysing whether the placements of pupils directed off-site into alternative provision are reviewed at sufficient intervals to assure that the education is achieving its objectives.

The Board of Directors will determine whether there are any patterns of suspensions and exclusions across the trust.

