Preston Primary Academy Trust
Whistleblowing Policy
RAISING CONCERNS AT WORK (“WHISTLEBLOWING”)
CONFIDENTIAL REPORTING CODE

This policy has been written with the underlying principles of a Church of England school, which applies to Preston C of E Primary School and North Cadbury C of E Primary School.

1. Introduction

- 1.1 The term whistleblowing is generally used only with reference to workers and has a specific legal definition under the Public Interest Disclosure Act 1998, i.e., a disclosure of information which, in the reasonable belief of the worker, is made in the public interest and tends to show serious misconduct. The trust recognises that as a public body, it might receive a disclosure of information, not just from its workers, but from members of the public as well.
- 1.2 This policy applies to disclosures from employees, but also sets out the trust’s commitment to deal with disclosures from members of the public in the same way. To this end, where this policy refers to a “whistleblower”, it refers to both employees and members of the public who make a disclosure.
- 1.3 Preston Primary Academy Trust is committed to the highest possible standards of openness, probity and accountability. In line with that commitment, we wish to encourage employees, and others that we deal with, who have serious concerns about any aspect of the school’s work to come forward and voice those concerns.
- 1.4 Employees are often the first to realise that there may be something seriously wrong within the trust or their school. However, they may not express their concerns because they feel that speaking up would be disloyal to their colleagues or to the trust or to their school. They may also fear harassment or victimisation. In these circumstances it may be easier to ignore the concern rather than report what may just be a suspicion of malpractice.
- 1.5 This Confidential Reporting Code is intended to encourage and enable employees to raise concerns within the trust and the school rather than overlooking a problem or ‘blowing the whistle’ outside. This Code makes it clear that employees can do so without fear of victimisation, subsequent discrimination or disadvantage. Preston Primary Academy Trust is committed to listening to concerns, taking them seriously and ensuring that they are dealt with promptly and fairly.

- 1.6 The Code applies to all employees and those contractors working for the trust on our premises, for example agency staff, trainees on vocational/work experience, consultants, builders, drivers.
- 1.7 The Code is in addition to the trust's Complaints Procedure and other statutory reporting procedures. A decision on which route each concern takes will be made upon receipt.
- 1.8 The Code is based on the Department for Business Innovation & Skills: Guidance for Employers and Code of Practice which has been discussed with the relevant trade unions and professional organisations and has their support.
- 1.9 In addition to the trust's commitment to protect employees who raise concerns, the Public Interest Disclosure Act 1998 provides a worker with potential protection from detriment and dismissal for making a 'qualifying disclosure'. The Act has rules for making a protected disclosure:
- You must reasonably believe the disclosure is in the public interest.
 - You must believe it to be substantially true.
 - You must not act maliciously or make false allegations.
 - You must not seek any personal gain.
- 1.10 An employee who raises a concern under this Code and reasonably believes the disclosure is in the public interest will be protected from any claim of defamation by the Council's insurance policy.

2. Aims and Scope of The Code

- 2.1 This Code aims to:
- encourage you to feel confident in raising serious concerns and to question and act upon concerns about practice;
 - provide avenues for you to raise concerns and receive feedback on any action taken;
 - ensure that you receive a response to your concerns and that you are aware of how to pursue them if you are not satisfied;
 - reassure you that you will be protected from possible reprisals or victimisation if you have a reasonable belief that you have made any disclosure you have made to be in the public interest;
 - assist with deterrent and detection of wrongdoings
- 2.2 There is a Grievance procedure in place for you to raise a concern relating to your own employment. This Confidential Reporting Code is intended to cover major concerns reasonably believed to be in the public interest that fall outside the scope of other procedures. These include:
- Criminal offences, for example, fraud, theft, physical or sexual abuse.

- Failure to comply with an obligation set out in law.
- Miscarriages of justice.
- Abuse or bullying of children and vulnerable people, evasion of statutory responsibilities.
- Unauthorised use of public funds or other assets.
- Abuse of power for financial or other gain.
- Endangering of someone's health and safety (employee or member of the public).
- Damage to the environment.
- Other causes of malpractice, negligent, unprofessional or unethical behaviour.
- Covering up wrongdoing in the above categories.

Please note that this is not a comprehensive list but is intended to illustrate the range of issues which might be raised under this Code.

2.3 Thus, serious concerns which you have about any aspect of service provision or the conduct of employees, directors of the trust or governors of the school or others acting on behalf of the trust can be reported under the Confidential Reporting Code. This may be something that:

- makes you feel uncomfortable in terms of known standards, your experience or the standards you believe the trust subscribes to; or
- is against Standing Orders, Financial Regulations and school and trust policies; or
- falls below established standards of practice; or
- amounts to improper conduct.

2.4 The trust provides guidance to employees on the standards it expects from its employees through the policies agreed by the school, for example:

- Codes of Conduct.
- Health and Safety Policy.
- Equality Policy.
- Gifts and Hospitality Policy.

Also, through procedures, agreed with the relevant recognised trade unions and professional associations, for addressing poor standards which include:

- Disciplinary Procedure.
- Grievance Procedure.

2.5 This Code does not replace the trust's Complaints Procedure or reporting requirements linked to safeguarding.

3. How to raise a concern

- 3.1 As a first step, you should normally raise concerns with your immediate manager or their line manager. This depends, however, on the seriousness and sensitivity of the issues involved and who is suspected of the malpractice. For example, if you believe that management (a member or members of the school management team) is involved, you should approach one of the following:
- The Headteacher.
 - The Chair of Governors.
- 3.2 If you continue to have concerns or believe those listed above are implicated, then you should approach one of the following:
- The Chief Executive Officer
 - The Chair of the Trust Board
- 3.3 In the trust, if these channels have been followed but you continue to have concerns or believe that those listed above are implicated then you should approach one of the following:
- The Education Funding Agency.
 - OFSTED.
 - The HR Advisory Team for any employment issues.
 - Director of Children's Service.
- 3.4 Concerns may be raised verbally or in writing. You will need to include the background and history of the concern (giving relevant details, e.g., names, dates) and the reason why you are particularly concerned about the situation. When raising a concern, you must declare any personal interest you have in the matter.
- 3.5 The earlier you express the concern, the easier it is to take action.
- 3.6 Although you are not expected to prove beyond doubt the truth of an allegation, you will need to demonstrate that there are reasonable grounds for a concern. However, you must not attempt to investigate a concern or accuse individuals directly.
- 3.7 Advice and guidance on how to pursue matters of concern may be obtained from:
- HR Advisory Service (01823 355992).
 - Officers within South West Audit Partnership, the confidential phone number is 020 8142 8462().
 - Your trade union/professional association representative.
 - The NSPCC whistleblowing helpline is also available for staff who do not feel able to raise concerns regarding child protection failures internally. Staff can call 0800 028 0285 – line is available from 8:00 AM to 8:00 PM, Monday to Friday and email: help@nspcc.org.uk.

- 3.8 You may wish to consider discussing your concern with a colleague first and you may find it easier to raise the matter if there are two (or more) of you who have had the same experience or concerns.
- 3.9 You may invite your trade union/professional association representative or work colleague to be present during any meetings or interviews in connection with the concerns you have raised. Meetings can be arranged off-site if you wish.

4. How the Trust will respond

- 4.1 The trust will respond to your concerns. Do not forget that testing out your concerns is not the same as either accepting or rejecting them.
- 4.2 The action taken by the trust will depend on the nature of the concern. Where appropriate, the matters raised may:
- be investigated by the LA or SWAP Internal Audit Services;
 - be referred to the Police;
 - be referred to the Regional Schools Director
 - be referred to an external auditor;
 - form the subject of an independent inquiry;
 - be dealt with under a more appropriate trust procedure.
- 4.3 In order to protect individuals and those accused of misdeeds or possible malpractice, initial enquiries will be made to decide whether an investigation is appropriate and, if so, what form it should take. The overriding principle which the trust will have in mind is the public interest. Concerns or allegations which fall within the scope of specific procedures (for example, child protection or discrimination issues or financial irregularities) will normally be referred for consideration under those procedures.
- 4.4 Some concerns may be resolved by agreed action without the need for investigation.
- 4.5 If urgent action is required this will be taken before any investigation is conducted.
- 4.6 Within ten working days, the person with whom you raised the concern will write to you:
- acknowledging that the concern has been received;
 - indicating how they propose to deal with the matter;
 - giving an estimate of how long it will take to provide a final response;
 - telling you whether any initial enquiries have been made;
 - supplying you with information on staff support mechanisms; and

- telling you whether further investigations will take place, and if not, why not.
- 4.7 The amount of contact will depend on the nature of the matters raised, the potential difficulties involved, and the clarity of the information provided. If necessary, further information will be sought from you.
- 4.8 The trust will take steps to minimise any difficulties which you may experience as a result of raising a concern. For example, if you are required to give evidence the trust will arrange for you to receive advice about the procedure.
- 4.9 The trust accepts that you need to be assured that the matter has been properly addressed and you will be informed of the final outcome of the investigation. In some circumstances, however, it may not be possible to reveal the full details where this relates to personal issues involving a third party or legal constraints.
- 4.10 If you make an allegation that you reasonably believe is in the public interest, but it is not confirmed by the investigation, no action will be taken against you.

5. How the matter can be taken further

- 5.1 This Code is intended to help you raise concerns you may have within the trust. Hopefully, you will be satisfied with any action taken. If you are not, there are other people you can contact, and these are:
- the External Auditor;
 - your trade union/professional association;
 - relevant professional bodies or regulatory organisations (for example Health and Safety Executive, OFSTED, Department for Education);
 - Public Concern at Work;
 - an elected Member of the Council;
 - the Ombudsman;
 - the Police;
 - your own solicitor.
- 5.2 If you do take the matter outside the trust, you should ensure that you do not misuse confidential information. The person you contact should be able to advise you on this.
- 5.3 The Code, in line with the legislation, provides protection for employees who raise concerns internally. It is inconsistent with the satisfactory operation of the Code to pursue such concerns with the media (newspapers, TV, radio, etc) and employees who do so are unlikely to be protected by the provisions of the Public Interest Disclosure Act and may be subject to disciplinary action.

6. Anonymous Allegations

- 6.1 This Code encourages you to put your name to your allegation whenever possible.
- 6.2 Concerns expressed anonymously or through a third party are much less powerful and may not be possible to investigate.
- 6.3 In exercising this discretion, the factors to be taken into account would include:
- the seriousness of the issues raised;
 - the credibility of the concern; and
 - the likelihood of confirming the allegation from attributable sources.

7. Harassment or Victimisation

- 7.1 Preston Primary Academy Trust recognises that the decision to report a concern can be a difficult one to make. However, you have a responsibility to the trust and to those for whom you are providing a service to raise serious concerns using the approach outlined in this Confidential Reporting Code.
- 7.2 The trust will not tolerate any harassment or victimisation (including informal pressures) and will take action to protect you when you raise a concern where you reasonably believe the disclosure is in the public interest.
- 7.3 Disciplinary action will be taken against an employee if they try to stop you from raising a concern or if an employee is responsible for any act of retribution against you for raising a concern.
- 7.4 Any investigation into allegations of potential malpractice will not influence or be influenced by any disciplinary or redundancy procedures that already affect you.

8. Confidentiality

- 8.1 All concerns will be treated in confidence and every effort will be made not to reveal your identity if you so wish. It must be appreciated, however, that the investigation process may reveal the source of the information, and that a statement may be required as part of the evidence and/or you may need to come forward as a witness at the appropriate time. We will keep your identity confidential, if that is what you want, unless required to disclose it by law (for example, by the Police or if it is required to be disclosed for the purposes of subsequent disciplinary action).

9. False Allegations

9.1 If an allegation is knowingly made frivolously, maliciously or for personal gain, disciplinary action may be taken. The Whistleblower does not need evidence but instead need to have reasonable belief that the concerns raised are true.

10. The Responsible Officer

10.1 The Headteacher has overall responsibility for monitoring the Code and will report annually to the Governing Body on the operation of the Code.

11. Review

11.1 The Code will be kept under review and as a result may be subject to amendment.
